STOCKS WERE WEAK

SPECULATION UNSETTLED ON THE CROP SCARE IN THE WEST.

Industrials Held Strong and Sugar Advanced 21-8-At Indianapolis Wheat Steady and Other Grain Up.

At New York yesterday money on call was easy at 1 per cent.

Prime mercantile paper, 3@5 per ceni Sterling exchange was firm, with actual business in bankers' bills at $4.881/2 for demand and at $4.87% for sixty days; posted rates, $4.88@4.89; commercial bills, $4.861/4@

Silver certificates, 64@65c. Bar silver, 62%c per ounce; Mexican dollars, 50%c. At London, bar silver, 28 13-16d per ounce. Total sales of stock amounted to 137,251 shares, American Sugar having 39,800 and Burlington 23,100. The week opened on the Stock Exchange with an unsettled tone to the speculation, which quickly developed into weakness. In the railway list, and more particularly in the grangers, was the depression greatest. Advices from the corn belt were very unfavorable, reporting severe injury to the crop by the protracted hot weather. This naturally revived the reports touching the next dividends, which were more pronounced than ever against the payments at the regular rates for the ourrent quarter. Bear figures were given out to prove that the earnings would not justify the deckaration of dividends at the usual rates, and the shares were hammered down on the hope of bringing out long stock and disclosing stop orders. There were Western selling orders in St. Paul, Rock Island and Burlington & Quincy, the latter stock also being sold by Boston. London was a seller of St. Paul. This latter stock was well held and gave only 34. with a final recovery of %. One reason for the comparative firmness of St. Paul is that the short interest therein is still large and the traders are indisposed to go short for any very large amounts. Burlington & Quincy was most largely pressed for sale, and the rumor mongers were most fertile as to its uninviting future, resulting in a decline of 14, with a rally of 4. Rock Island broke 1%, recovering % and reacting % at the close, while Northwestern dropped 2. closing 34 above the lowest figure touched. The general railway list was weak during the greater part of the day, with occasional slight rallies, and the murket closed heavy, in some cases at the lowest of the day, and in most instances within a fraction thereof. The declines exceeding a fraction are: St. Paul & Omaha and Kansas & Texas preferred, each 1 per cent.; Manhattan, 11/2; Peoria & Eastern, 2: Edison Illuminating, 234, and Alton & Terre Haute, 3. The industrials did not share in the general depression, and Sugar, which led in the transactions, showed most strength, selling up 21% on purchases induced by Washington reports, announcing that the Senate conferees were steadfast Erie preferred has advanced 1% and St. Paul & Omaha preferred and Northwest preferred each show an improvement of 1 per cent. on the last previous sale. The railway and miscellaneous bond market was only moderately active, the total sales being $532,500. During the morning the tone of the dealings was fairly firm, but in the afternoon became easier and the market closed weak. The principal changes in the day were: Declines-Atchison, Colorado & Pacific firsts, 2; Southern Pacific of Arizona firsts and Union Pacific sinking fund eighths, 1 per cent. Advances-Toledo, Peoria & Western firsts, 11/2.

LOCAL GRAIN AND PRODUCE.

The Business of the Week Opens Very Sluggishly-Corn and Oats Higher. There was the usual Monday quiet in the wholesale markets yesterday. But few buyers were in town, and mail orders were light. The condition generally is one of expectancy. In the grocery trade the only change from the conditions noted on Saturday is an advance of 1sc on all grades of sugar. All other staples are steady. In country products there is only one change to note in quotations, which is a sharp drop in spring chickens, from 12c straight to 10@11c: otherwise poultry, eggs, butter, etc., are steady. The fruit and vegetable market was unusually dull yesterday, but quotations were not changed. On 'Change the attendance was very light, and the amount of trade small. Wheat was unchanged, but both corn and oats show a higher range of quotations. The receipts yesterday were: Wheat, 23,100 bu; corn, 23,200 bu; oats, 23,000 bu. #### English Aristocracy Amuses Itself. London Letter:

In marked contrast to the amusements of the strong spirited ruler of Germany are those of Home Secretary Asquith, of England, and Arthur Balfour, the Conservative leader. The two, with lady friends, visited the insidious temptations of the Earls' Court exhibition the other day and an unkind reporter told what happened. First they shot the chutes, an exciting experience which developed new and unsuspected qualities in the versatile Cabinet Minister. Who before suspected that he could whoop like an Indian? As soon as Asquith had mopped off the water, he weakly allowed himself to be persuaded to try the haunted swing. This is a new side show, particularly diabolical in character. You sit on a swing in a dark room, and while you gently sway backwards and forwards a few inches only the walls of the room are revolving vertically. The effect is to delude the unhappy victim into the belief that the compartment is describing an entire circle. Ladies have been seen to wildly hold their skirts about their ankles at the moment they imagined they were hanging in space head downward, while many a man, leaving the room, will count his money to see if any dropped from his pocket, so complete is the illusion. Judging by the groans and moans which penetrated to the outer world while Asquith and his party were @95; fair bridle, $60@78 per doz; city kip, | swinging they had a terrible time of it.

CORN TOOK THE LEAD

ITS RAPID ADVANCE SERVED TO DRAG WHEAT UPWARD.

The General News Was bearish, but Not Enough to Overcome the Bull Facts in Corn.

CHICAGO, July 30.-There was plenty of excitement in the corn pit at the Board of Trade to-day. Reports of ruined crops came in thick and fast and the pri: jumped rapidly. There was an advance, of nearly 3 cents during the trading hours and the market closed at the top figures. The wheat pit was partially deserted, interest centering in corn. The news in wheat was bearish, but its price went up 2 cents in sympathy with the corn scare. The excitement started with the posting of a statement showing the receipts of live stock in Chicago to be 97,000 head, the largest one-day receipts ever known. It brought traders to the realization of the drought in the corn belt and its consequences such as they had not previously conceived. The magnitude of the receipts showed that the Western stock growers had become alarmed over the long drought, and fearing that they would be unable to secure feed at paying prices, had resolved to sell out at once. While the brokers have taken cognizance of the drought they had not heretofore had it so strongly impressed upon their minds. The showing that 60,000 hogs, 25,000 cattle and 12,000 sheep had been shipped to Chicago in twenty-four hours came with almost the suddenness and force of a knockout blow. During all last week corn was on the jump. The signal service reports of showers in various localities caused prices to drop 2 cents, but when it was reasoned that rain had benefited but a limited territory in the vast corn district, and, therefore, could not have much effect the price rose again. Saturday night prices closed pretty well advanced, with the expectation of the market being influenced by the weather on Monday. When the traders came down to business to-day they consulted the weather map and press dispatches and saw that in sections of Illinols, Missouri and Kansas showers had fallen but there had not been supported by the confectioners. A 45-1604 lbc; confectioners. A 45-1604 lbc; cut-load the confectioners. A 45-1604 lbc; cut-load the confectioners. fallen, but there had not been sufficient to break the drought in the big corn belt, which extends from Ohio to the Rocky mountains. Then came the announcement regarding live stock receipts and it began to be realized that 75 per cent. of the lest portion of the corn belt was still affected by the drought. The "surplus corn" States, Iowa, Illinois, Missouri, Kansas and Indiana, which last year raised a billion bushels of the 1,600,000,000 bushels constituting the entire crop in the United States, and shipped much of it because they were unable to use it, had not been materially affected, is was declared, and the brokers were set to thinking. It did not take them long to figure out with considerable unanimity that the Western packers who became heavy buyers of corn during the closing days last week knew more about the exact situation than they did themselves, and that the indications of the serious effect of the drought had been seen in the West before seen here. In wheat there was a very fair speculative trade, the market fluctuating frequently. Initial trades were at about Saturday's final figures, September opening at 52%c, and shortly afterward eased off a little, advancing %@%c, declined %@%c, ruled firmer, advanced 1%@2%c, changed some and closed with September at 54%c. The principal surrounding influences were rather bearish aside from the action of corn. Among the bearish influences were liberal receipts and reports that France would have wheat for export this year. There was a small increase on ocean passage and a large increase in the visible supply-about twice what was expected. Minneapolis reported the receipt of three cars of new wheat at that point, and this acted as a bearish factor. There were 838 cars received here. A feature was the buying of September and selling of December, the discount narrowing down from 314c to 3c. The market railled some after the decline, the crowd rather overselling on the visible. Closing cables were irregular and generally higher, aiding in the rally at the close.

Corn was active, with the market broad and the sentiment very much mixed, the volume of business being heavy with fluctuations sudden and frequent within 2780 316c range. The weather was the all-absorbing topic, and advices from the interior were eagerly watched for and very numerous. The opening trades on September were the same to ½c under, at 44% and on May ¼@1¼c over the final figures of Saturday, and both immediately advanced 1/20%c, eased off 1/20%c, railled 2%c, changed somewhat, ruled firm and closed with September at 46%c. There were fair rains in Illinois and Missouri and some in Kansas, but very little in Iowa and Nebraska. There were all kinds of orders filled at the opening, selling from the wet points and buying from the dry portions. Illinois was said to be selling quite freely and Iowa and Nebraska buying. The selling of the day was mainly by professio mis. many of whom usually operate in wheat, and the buying largely by shorts and receivers acting for the country. Oats were influenced by the strength in corn, and ruled firmer. The range for Sep-Was 1720. Provisions were easy at the opening on the very heavy live hog receipts, out firmed up later on the advance in corn. Compared with Saturday night, September pork is unchanged, September lard .0712e lower and September ribs .05c lower. Freights, %ale for wheat and corn to Buffalo.
